

ACCREDITATION STANDARDS REVISION RECORD

Polysomnography

Quality improvement

No.	Original standard	Rev	vised standard
SQI4.1.3	Procedures for conducting medical peer review are documented and include the volume of cases to be reviewed.	Μ	The medical leader is responsible to ensure the focus of the peer review program is quality improvement. (Mandatory)
SQI4.1.4	Procedures for conducting medical peer review are documented and include the frequency of review.		Criteria descriptor removed.
SQI4.1.8	Procedures for conducting medical peer review are documented and include individual(s) appropriate to conduct the peer review.		Criteria descriptor removed.
SQI4.1.9	Procedures for conducting medical peer review are documented and include the methodology to conduct the peer review process.		Criteria descriptor removed.
SQI4.1.10	Procedures for conducting medical peer review are documented and include the required documentation.		Criteria descriptor removed.

No.	Original standard		Revised standard
SQI4.1.13		The medical peer review program includes the following minimum elements.	Criteria descriptor removed.
SQI4.1.14	Μ	A defined number of cases and reports are randomly selected for medical peer review for each interpreting physician on a monthly basis. (Mandatory)	Criteria descriptor removed.
SQI4.1.15	Μ	The completeness and accuracy of the reporting is assessed. (Mandatory)	Criteria descriptor removed.
SQI4.1.16	Μ	The number of cases is recorded and reported. (Mandatory)	Criteria descriptor removed.
SQ14.2	Μ	Inter-observer variability amongst the interpreting physicians in the department is evaluated at least annually. (Mandatory)	The medical peer review program includes the following elements.
SQ14.2.1		The medical leader is responsible to ensure where

No.	Original standard	Revised standard
SQ14.2.3		M The number of cases is record 235. isses is .75 re The information